

Presentations

You will be given 15 minutes for your presentation. Extra 5 minutes will be devoted for the immediate questions. A beamer is available for powerpoint or pdf presentations. Your presentation should be handed to the person in charge, on the day of your session between 8h45 and 9h00, or 13h45 and 14h00. You may also send it by mail no later than 15th November.

Posters

You will be given a stand support of 170cm height and 140cm large, and pringles to attach it. Your poster should be handed to the person in charge, on 16th November between 8h45 and 9h00.

Location

The 15th International Seminar on Supercentenarians will take place in the Auditorium, which is located on the ground floor of Humathèque in Campus Condorcet (Aubervilliers, France).

Adresse: 10 cours des Humanités, 93300 Aubervilliers.

Public transport

- Metro 12: station Front Populaire
- RER B: La Plaine - Stade de France
- Bus: 139 et 239 (stop : La Montjoie – Germaine Tillon), 512 (stop : Saint-Gobain)

To get to the Humathèque from the Airport Charles de Gaulle (around 45 minutes):

1. Take a train RER B direction Paris, get out at the stop “La plaine – Stade de France”. (Attention: the train should stop at every station).
2. Take a bus either 139 or 239 direction Rosa Parks, get out at the stop “La Montjoie - Germaine Tillion”

To get to the Humathèque from the Orly Airport (around 60 minutes):

1. Take Orlyval train to the station of RER B “Antony”.
2. Take a train RER B direction Mitry-Claiye or Aeroport Charles de Gaulle, get out at the stop “La Plaine – Stade de France”.
3. Take a bus either 139 or 239 direction Rosa Parks, get out at the stop “La Montjoie - Germaine Tillion”.

For more information on how to get to Humathèque, please consult the website of Campus Condorcet.

<https://www.humatheque-condorcet.fr/fr/acces>